Leading new design and collateral projects for Pan-India. Design and execution for the quarterly magazine and creative concepts for the same. I designed the majority of our partner clients' site banners and creatives, as well as other designs and creatives for social media platforms. I designed end-to-end marketing collateral for our business teams, as well as standees, posters, and badges for our organization's Ceo office and national needs. I worked on animation, asset recreation, and GIF production. Content production and training
